SAY TURKS' CLAIMS ARE RIDICULOUS

Balkan Delegates State That They Do Not Even Form Basis For Negotiations.

SERIAN CALLS THEM TURKISH "DREAMERS"

Conference Will Meet Again Today to Learn of Further Word from Constantinople.

By Bulletin Leased Wire.

London, Dec. 28.—The brief session of the peace conference today brought no definite result to their feet in protest against the allies' demands put forward by French Foreign Minister Aristide Briand.

The Turks' moderate demands are considered very reasonable and what endorsement was taken to Monday afternoon that the Turks must lower their demands greatly or consent to negotiations of the terms proposed by the allies.

If they attempt to stand by their guns in a military strategy, the allies may break the negotiations, which consider'd not improbable that Turkey would enter with the hope of intervention to see what the result would lead to a European conference or meeting.

The plenipotentiaries could not see any way out of the world they yielded to the pressure of all Europe.

The Turks do not object to the acceptance of mediation if it is understood that the mediators must respect the terms of acquisition resulting from the war.

Russia-Jap Negotiations. Repeated.

There were no further Russo-Jap negotiations at Peking yesterday, but Arthur and Dulmec and others seemed inscrutable.

He will be surprised at what is occurring in London.

Disputes are amiable, the interests affected and involved are greater and more far-reaching, he said, practically the whole Eastern Central and Southern Europe, leaders of the Balkans.

It was Turkey turn today to furnish the press office and Redhad Pasha took the chair. The total attendance was 22, General Grivice, the former Serbian minister of war, who was absent from the conference on account of his clear and fluent pronunciation of French, read the minutes of the previous session.

Pasha then arose and calmly unfolded a document saying that he had received from the Sultan a copy of the proposals of his imperial government for concluding peace.

TO BUILD MUCH NEW RAILWAY

Next Year Will Be a Record Breaker for Construction in the West.

By Bulletin Leased Wire.

Winnipeg, Dec. 28.—Next year will be a record-breaker in the way of new lines to be built. In addition to the present arrangements, the three rail-way companies, the C.P.R., C.N.R. and G.W.R., will add 270 miles of additional trackage.

This will mean an increase of 720 miles of track in the West, a work which totalled 1,755 miles, and was built at a cost of nearly $30,000,000. In 1912 there were 1,485 miles of new construction.

Out of the 1,755 miles of new lines to be built, the three transcontinental provinces and British Columbia next year, the C.P.R. alone will build 1,000 miles of track, the G.W.R. 600 miles and where the popular vote was almost unanimous in favor of organization, there has not been so much competition for the work.

The C.P.R. will be the main trucking of the mail line between Brandon and Calgary.

F. H. Gaskins, 44.

The manager of the P. & G. division, secretary of the Manitoba Cricket League, will regret to learn that he is dangerously ill. He was admitted to the hospital on Saturday night. His son, Mr. Gaskins, was taken sick yesterday, and was immediately removed to the Royal Alexandra Hospital.

MUNICIPALITIES HOLD ELECTIONS

Great Interest Was Taken in the Recent Contests Throughout the Province.

Elections have just been held in the City of Old rural municipalities have been formed in Alberta under the new Local Improvement Act passed at the last session of the legislature. Whereas very little interest was shown in the elections under the old Local Improvement Act, and in many cases the election was not even held, now great interest is shown in the elections because elections were entirely neglected in some districts.

The new councils came into force at the beginning of the year. Hilcrest is the first town to be incorporated in subdivision property and where the councillors elected are well disposed and interested in their work.

The votes cast have numbered 1,000,000, where there were only 10,000 voters.

Many Candidates.

In several cases more than a dozen candidates have been nominated. The fear that in municipalities on the outskirts of towns and cities the owners of property would not turn out to vote the election and that the farmers would be unrepresented has been dispelled.

On the other hand, in the town of Calmar subdivision, three of the constituents are farmers and the town council consists of two men.

The new councils come into force at the beginning of the year. Hilcrest is the first town to be incorporated in subdivision property and where the councillors elected are well disposed and interested in their work.

Great Interest Taken.

As was to be expected, the greatest interest in the elections has been shown in the towns and cities, where the vote on the question of organization was most keenly contested. On Friday night, the election of the new council was held in Old Calmar, which municipality contains 1,000 people.

The new council came into force at the beginning of the year. Hilcrest is the first town to be incorporated in subdivision property and where the councillors elected are well disposed and interested in their work.

The most interesting question, however, was the one concerning the appointment of the secretary-treasurers. In some cases the salary paid to the secretary-treasurer was $100 per year, while in other districts it was $100 to $200 per year and the office taken up nearly half the time.

Department's Advice.

In all cases the advice given by the Department of Municipal Affairs to the new councils is that they should elect a man as soon as possible.

Experience has shown that those districts which get a man sooner rather than later, get along better than those with only indifferent men. The difference of one hundred dollars a year in the pay of the secretary of the good man is more than repaid by the increased assessment and particularly that of the small subdivisions which catch up with the large ones.

The elections of councillors in the established Local Improvement districts will take place next month.

MR. BORDEN AND THE ADMIRALTY.

Mr. Borden attempted to justify his naval proposal by reading a communication from the Admiralty setting forth the comparative merits of naval and air powers. Evidently his object was to present his proposal as being in line with the opinions of the Admiralty as to Canadian naval policy. Whether the proposal coincides with the communication is a matter of opinion. Leaving that aside, it is in point to recall what Mr. Borden had said not long ago in the wisdom of his advice from the Admiralty on the matter of a Canadian naval policy. He spoke in Parliament on Jan. 12th, 1910, on the question of whether or not Canada should follow the suggestion of the Admiralty and make her naval policy one of annual contribution to the British navy. He said: "I am loathing the resolution adopted by Parliament the preceding year approving the creation of a Canadian navy. On that occasion Mr. Borden was quite explicit. He said:

"It has been suggested that instead of having a Canadian naval force, there should be a system of annual contributions from the country to the Royal Navy. I am free to admit that, from the strategic point of view, it would be indeed to agree with that suggestion. But I believe that that would be the best way for the great self-governing dominions to contribute to the naval contributions."

"But, sir, from a constitutional and a practical standpoint, I am opposed to it for many reasons. In the first place, I do not believe that it would be wise to have a Canadian naval force in the end place; it would be a source of friction. It would become a bone of contention between us and would be subject to criticism as to the character and the amount of the contribution. It would be a burden to Messrs. Borden, Hazelton and Foster and not among those remembered by the King in the New Year honors. Canadians have not been notable for excessive modesty but this is probably the first time that formal notice has been served on a sovereign that a group of Canadian Ministers were expecting knight hood."

Ottawa correspondents of news papers supporting the Government have begun to utter threats of destruction to the Senate should they body reject Mr. Borden's naval bill. As there has been no official communication of the kind, the Ministers may be taken as merely an evidence that the Ministers intend to rail road the measure through Parliament by bluster and bluff if it can be done. The possibility of an interruption which would necessitate an appeal to the country seems remote but not impossible. This is their way of admitting that the proposal has not taken with the people as they hoped. Had it been acclaimed with the enthusiasm and unanimity they tried to pre-arrange for it they would have been rather pleased than disconcerted by such an occurrence which would then have given the country with it as their "piano form."

At present that seems to be about the last thing they want to do. Their actions speak more loudly than their boasts.

whose rise or fall in the political world has depended upon the accuracy of their judgment. Even supposing the Admiralty to prefer a contribution system as Canada's example in naval matters, it does not follow that a contribution system would provide good results, or would not even produce bad results, upon the relations existing between the Old Land and the Dominion. That is a question for the statesman, not the strategist. To insist, as Mr. Borden did, that the Admiralty is not competent to advise on a contribution system for the overseas Dominion is not to reflect upon the competence of the Admiralty to discharge its proper functions; but merely to contend that a board of experts in naval construction and strategy are not necessarily also a council of astute statesmen.

That Mr. Borden recently held and exhibited such views, and has been in holding and expressing them, makes his present attempt to set up the alleged opinion of the Admiralty appear neither candid nor dignified.

Forty-four new coal mines were opened in Alberta during the past year, and the output for the year is expected to be four million tons larger than that of last year. Those who think of Alberta as a farming province only have need to revise their opinions.

A railway official says farmers in Saskatchewan are showing a disposition to hold their grain because prices have soared during recent months. All farmers who took Mr. Foster's advice last fall and held back their grain to accommodate the railway companies are entitled to an explanation from the Minister of Customs.

It is expected that the first trainload of Western wheat will reach Ontario over the G. T. P. early in the week. Newspapers supporting the Borden Government have been putting emphasis upon the value this new outlet will be in facilitating the movement of the grain. Their efforts may not prove successful, however, as the same papers tried to prevent the new road being built, on the ground that it was not then needed and probably never would be.

As Ottawa despairs emanating from a source evidently friendly to the Ministers says there will be greater difficulties in the future. John Foster and Hazelton and Foster are not among those remembered by the King in the New Year honors. Canadians have not been notable for excessive modesty but this is probably the first time that formal notice has been served on a sovereign that a group of Canadian Ministers were expecting knight hood.

IRON WORKERS ARE CONVICTED OF CONSPIRACY

Jury Returns Verdict of Guilty Against Thirty-Eight Dynamite Conspirators.

ALMOST ALL OFFICIALS OF UNION CONVICTED

Organized Labor and People of U. S. Owes Debt of Gratitude to Jury, Says Attorney.

Indianapolis, Dec. 28.—Thirty-eight labor union officials today were convicted of plotting to blow up the McNamara dynamite plot including the wrecking of the Los Angeles Times building.

Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Iron and Steel Workers, was among those convicted. He and the others, was accused of using the union's funds to destroy the property of contractors who refused to recognize the union.

Two defendants were found "not guilty."

The verdicts were brought in at 10 a.m. All those adjudged guilty were sentenced to prison terms ranging from one to ten years.

The jury was discharged and court adjourned until 1 p.m. at which time sentence will be imposed.

Seifert and Buckley, the only two men out of 48 labor union officials to be adjudged not guilty were discharged from custody.

The following were found guilty:

Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Association of Iron and Structural Iron Workers; John T. Butler, Buffalo, vice-president; and formerly of Detroit; Olaf A. Tveitum, San Francisco, secretary of the International Brotherhood of Carpenters; Phillip A. Conley, New Orleans; Michael J. Gould, Boston; Frank Higgins, Houston; James H. Munsey, Salt Lake City; Frank C. Webb, New York; Patrick F. Farley, Newark, N. J.; John J. O'Farrell, St. Paul; Paul J. Morris, St. Louis; Henry W. Lemleithen, Denver; Charles E. Johnson, Milwaukee; Eddie Judd, Milwaukee; Michael J. Cunningham, Philadelphia; Richard H. Jackson, Atlanta; James A. Coughlin, Chicago; James A. Coughlin, Chicago; William E. Phillips, Chicago; Edward J. Murphy, New York; William C. Fernandes, Cincinnati; Ohio; Wilford L. Brown, Kansas City; and William E. McNamee, Kansas City, Mo.; Frank K. Painter, Omaha; Peter J. Smith, Cleveland; George Anderson, Toledo, Ohio; Michael J. Gould, Scranton, Pa.; Edward A. Phillips, Syracuse, N. Y.; Charles Wachtmeir, Milwaukee; and Frank J. Murphy, Indianapolis; Fred Sherman, Indianapolis; Frank J. Murphy, Detroit; Hiram R. Johnson, San Francisco, secretary of the Union Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners.

The following were found guilty:

Herman G. Seifert, Milwaukee, and Daniel Buckley, Davenport, Iowa.

Government's Charge Sustained.

The conviction of George A. Tveitum, San Francisco, and J. E. Munsey of Salt Lake City, sustained the government's charge that they plotted in plotting the Los Angeles explosion in which 21 persons were killed and 65 injured in the escape of James H. McNamara, the man sought for the crime of that city.

In its verdict, the Indiana supreme court agreed that the McNamara brothers, now in prison in California, were aiding in the nationwide plot to blow up the headquarters of the executive officials of the iron workers' union, and that they knew for several years past that the union was causing explosives to be transported on passenger trains.

James H. McNamara, 46, a 1906 members President Ryan once sat in the council of the American Federation of Labor.

Tveitum of San Francisco, was charged with not only supplying two men to assist in setting off the Los Angeles bomb but also with having asked for more explosives on the Pacific coast.

He was secretary of the California Building Trades Council, an architect and a recognized leader in labor circles.

Also at the head of those found guilty is Herbert S. Beckin, called "Becky," of Los Angeles, who was charged with first initiating Octie E. McManigal as a hired dynamiter to promote his own ambition. It was he who was once secretary of the International Union of Painters and Allied Trades.

John T. Butler, president of the Iron Workers, also was convicted of being breasted by the court as the chief mastermind of the plot.

As United States Marshal Edward Schmidt ordered the prisoner one to pay $16,998 in monthly to pay for dynamites.

The men were not charged with actually causing explosions. The only charge against them was that they were conspiring and illegal transportation of dynamite.

But the court ruled that evidence as to violence was competent as showing a motive.

The men were not ready to believe that organized labor yet stands for the things that the court charged them with. Judge Anderson's statements to the jury. "This is not a real test of labor unions, but of union officials accused of wrong-doing."

Imprisonment and Fine.
Each prisoner as guilty stands convicted of having in one instance joined in a conspiracy to commit a crime against the United States government, this being punished by a fine imprisonment or a sum of $10,000 or both.

While the cumulated possible punishment is thirty-nine and one-half years, the maximum sentence against the United States government, this being punished by a fine imprisonment or a sum of $10,000 or both.

Nothing else could have been expected. The evidence of a national wide conspiracy which began in 1906 and continued to 1910, the sentences the prisoners are to be taken before the court, and the record of the trial.

The men were not charged with actually causing explosions. The only charge against them was that they were conspiring and illegal transportation of dynamite.

"This prosecution will be a benefit to organized labor. It will purge it of the rough tactics. The white United States Marshals are a debt of gratitude to the court,"

John W. Miller, the United States district attorney, who prosecuted for the government.

"Nothing else could have been expected. The evidence of a national wide conspiracy which began in 1906 and continued to 1910, the sentences the prisoners are to be taken before the court, and the record of the trial.

"The dynamite cases held in violation of the law were well prepared to carry to its case. Perhaps there never has been a trial of such magnitude in the history of the country.

"Our hope now is to obtain as light sentences as possible. We believe that the men have been given short terms, because they had never been tried before. We hope that they all will be granted freedom.

WANDERERS BUMPED THE TECUMSEHS

OTAWA LOST TO STANLEY CUP HOLDERS

Prodigal sons' Team Manages to Win First Game of Season by 7 to 5.

Bulletin Leased Wire.
Tuesday, Dec. 28.—Eratic shooting, accompanied by poor goal work by most of the players, gave the Wanderers the best chance they will have this winter, but the Wanderers of Montreal, in their first game, were beaten by 7 to 4, tonight, before the largest crowd which ever attended a game at the arena, being close to forty-four hundred present. The score was 7 to 4 in favor of the Wanderers.

For the first two periods the Wanderers were the better team, but in the third period they may have been fairer. At any rate, the Wanderers, who were leading 3 to 4, to the Teumsehs uneventfully made a hard stroke, the only hard luck prevented score.

The Wanderers, in a great individual style, scored the game, but the margin of two—two and a half points, if you can call them—was the closest the result might have been, and forest.

Final Hand Luck Score

On the game displayed by the two teams, Picton, Ontario, and Ottawa, the Wanderers had a dozen times they were right by the Wanderers, defense, only to make the net, however, and the Wanderers had a dozen times out the goal, only to miss a score.

The Wanderers, in the blue shirt, in many ways, they have not, but they are very perfect, and the Teumsehs, besides being much harder, this weight the scales.

The line-up, for the first game, was as follows:

Teumsehs—Russell, Howie, Montreal, 1 minute; J. W. Winters, London, 1 minute; G. Williams, 1 minute; T. Teumsehs, Smith, 6:00; G. Teumsehs, 1:00; H. Teumsehs, 1:00; G. Teumsehs, 2:00; 20 seconds.

First period—T. Teumsehs, Smith, 2:00; 7, Wanderers, 1:00; G. Williams, 2:00; 5, Winters, 1:00; Winters, 5:00; 10, Teumsehs, 1:00; 10, Wanderers, 1:00.
